

Memorial Day Poppies Will Be Sold Sat.

Mrs. Vernon Henderson, President of the South Bay American Legion Aux., 161 announces the sale of Poppies will be held Saturday. The Poppy is America's Silent Tribute to her dead and wounded of World Wars I and II, the Korean War and the current Viet Nam conflict. The meaning of the Poppy is told in this poem:

IN FLANDERS' FIELDS

By Colonel John McCrea

In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing fly,
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead.

Short days ago we lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved and now we lie
In Flanders' fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe,
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch — be yours to hold it high;
If ye break faith with who we die,
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders' fields.

PROCLAMATION

BY THE MAYOR OF THE CITY OF BELLE GLADE, FLORIDA

WHEREAS, Poppies are made by Veterans in hospitals throughout the United States, and

WHEREAS, the making of Poppies is used as a method of therapy on some disabled Veterans, and

WHEREAS, all monies derived from the sale of Poppies is used to help Veterans and their needy families.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BILL J. BAILEY, Mayor of the City of Belle Glade, Florida, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 27, 1967 as POPPY DAY.

IN OBSERVANCE THEREOF, I urge that all persons and organizations cooperate with the American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 20 in this worthwhile cause.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Belle Glade to be affixed by virtue of the authority invested in me as Mayor of the City of Belle Glade, Florida.

DONE AND PROCLAIMED this 19th day of May, 1967
Bill J. Bailey
Mayor of the City of Belle Glade, Florida

Students To Help Organize Here This Summer

A summer student project is being set up in Belle Glade by the Packing House Workers union here.

The project calls for students to volunteer the "pave the way for successful organization in the fall."

The plea for volunteers is made in the latest issue of Left Notes, a publication of the Students for a Democratic Society.

This organization was mentioned in J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the FBI in the February 1, 1967 FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin. Speaking of campus disorders, Hoover said, "At the core of these campus disorders, and often below the surface, we find agitator personnel from organizations such as the communist W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America and their comrades in the Students for a Democratic Society, a so-called 'New Left' group."

"The quote The Students for a Democratic Society, 'New Left Notes,' 'Despite constant harassment, intimidation, and several violent incidents, the workers' union (UPWA Agricultural Workers' Local 1242) has won several important strikes and has achieved rent reductions and building improvements through the organization of tenants' unions and housing committees."

It was also pointed out that even some patients with hospitalization insurance will be allowed $5 a week for personal expenses, subsistence will be provided as far as possible, sleeping space will be provided and volunteers must bring their own sleeping bags. "New Left Notes" states.

Cub Scouts

Donate To Library Fund

The Cub Scouts of Den 5, Pack 622 have added their names to the growing list of contributors to the new Belle Glade Municipal Library.

Mrs. Richard Shoemaker, Den Mother, presented Mrs. Lettie Harris, Librarian, with a check for $10.00 on Tuesday. Part of this money was earned by the boys at home. The rest was left over from Cub Scout dues. Mrs. Harris stated that a book will be purchased with the money and a plate will be placed in the front of it reading "Gift of the Cub Scouts of Den 5."

Miss Vaughn-Editor

Patricia Vaughn, Belle Glade, Florida is serving as a co-editor of the 1967 yearbook, "Entre Amis," of the Williams College for Women, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

Hospital Makes Policy Change

The Southwestern Palm Beach County Public Hospital Board approved two policy changes at their regular monthly meeting on May 16.

The "first one," according to Ben Clarke, Hospital Administrator, "is an attempt to reduce the amount of 'bad debts' which we experience every year by revising and strengthening our 'admission-deposit' requirements. The new policy requires deposits based on the medical classification of the patient and also type of room accommodation," Clarke continued.

Surgical patients will be asked for a deposit of $100 for a ward; $150 for semi-private; and $200 for a private room.

Medical, Obstetrical and Pediatric patients in a semi-private room will be required to make a deposit of $125 and $150 for a private room.

Clarke emphasized that this deposit system is for those patients not considered by the physician to be an emergency and who do not have a verified or adequate third party payment plan such as Blue Cross, commercial hospitalization insurance, Medicare, etc.

It was also pointed out that even some patients with hospitalization insurance will be required to make certain financial arrangements with the hospital, for example, the patient who has a policy paying $10 per day and who is in a $20 room will be asked to pay the $10 difference for a week at a time plus any extras not covered by insurance.

Clarke urged that any person who knows they are going to be admitted to the hospital contact the hospital's Business Office prior to admission in order to clarify any questions and to expedite the admitting process later on.

"The second policy change involves visiting hours," Clarke said. "The Medical Staff and Nursing Department have been experiencing difficulty in caring for the patient properly due to visitors coming in and out of the hospital all day long. Consequently, the new hours approved by the Board are as follows: 10:30 AM to 11:30 AM; 2 PM to 4 PM; 6 PM to 8 PM. Clarke noted that patients in private rooms are not affected and that upon request of the attending physician, a mother may stay with her child.

Two Glades Students Get Honors At PBJC

Two students from Belle Glade were among the 202 Palm Beach Junior College students who made the Dean's List in the Winter Term.

The list includes those who made a 3.0 average, (equivalent to a "B" grade), or better, on 15 credit hours of work or more.

The two and their averages for the term were: Ofelia S. Hayes, 3.20; and Martha Clement Sanchez, 3.33.

The 202 total for the Winter Term was down 58 from the 260 on the Dean's List in the Fall Term, but six students made all "A's" in the term, as against four in the Fall.

Everglades Fire Control Ask Monies

Note: The following is a letter sent to legislators by Guy J. Bender, Chief of the Everglades Fire Control District, on the "battle of continuing existence" of the department.

By the time you will receive this letter, or perhaps even before it reaches your desk, you will be called upon to either vote for the continuance of our requested budget of $244,000 for a two year period, or the discontinuing of the Everglades Fire Control District which has operated in South-east Florida for over a period of thirty-two years.

While I am sure you are acquainted with the operation of this Department and the wonderful benefit it has derived not only by the landowners, but by the thousands of residents and tourists that have visited and lived on the Southeast Coast of Florida, we are now experiencing one of the most serious conditions concerning drought and the lack of moisture with no

Graduation Scheduled At BGHS

The Senior class at Belle Glade High School will hold their graduation ceremony on Monday, June 5, at 8 p.m. The ceremony will be held at the school.

Class Night, a fun time for both students and audience, will be held, Friday at 8 p.m. During Class Night awards and scholarships will be presented.

The class of 1967 will also give a skit highlights their high school careers.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday at 8 p.m. These services will be conducted by Rev. Watkins of Stewart.

Graduation will be held June 2.

All three events will take place in the gymnasium at Belle Glade High School. Admission is free and the public is invited. No tickets nor reservations are needed.

Other articles of both Baccalaureate and Class Night are on the Rampage.

Jerry Thomas To Introduce Legislation

A concurrent resolution directing the Legislative Council to make a comprehensive study of the public welfare laws and programs was by State Senator Jerry Thomas, D-Lake Park.

Thomas said he would introduce the study recommendation at the request of Emmett S. Roberts, Director of the State Welfare Department and former representative of Palm Beach County.

The study and recommendations would be submitted to the Legislature 30 days before the next regular session.

"Mr. Roberts felt that the study should be made for the purpose of working toward codification of laws prescribing the administrative and legislative functions of the State Welfare Department and former representative of Palm Beach County."

Migrant Ministry Program Under Fire At Meeting

The Florida Christian Migrant Ministry called a meeting in Belle Glade Monday to determine the future role of the Migrant Ministry in Belle Glade in the work in the Okeechobee and Ocala Camps.

The meeting topic was set aside after questions were raised as to the Migrant Ministry's involvement in the recent unionizing activities and the unrest that grew out of union activities.

"You are aware that recent developments among farm laborers had been receiving publicity far out of proportion to its significance," Ben Fraticelli, Director of the Migrant Ministry said in his invitation to the Monday meeting. "Similarly, some misinformation about our efforts has been publicized."

Ben Hynton, program director here, said there has been no involvement of the local staff in the union activities. Fraticelli explained that his appearance in a rally here in December did not constitute union involvement but rather involvement in the interest of Migrants.

"I support the concept of self-determination. If people choose to call themselves a union, we will respond," Fraticelli said. "I've worked with migrant workers for over 20 years," Mrs. Ruth Wedgworth said.

Before the Migrant Ministry came into existence, Mrs. Wedgworth said, the community decided we needed a nursery. A nursery was set up with the packing houses supporting it. The federal government took over the project and the community was pushed aside. When the federal government gave the city housing Authority, Mrs. Wedgworth said, she again started to work with the project.

"I worked with them until I was pitted against labor people at each meeting," she said. "After the 'Harvest of Shame' I was stopped from speaking at a meeting and it is the last one I attended. It is a little bit difficult to work with an organization that is working against you. You can't have your heart in it."

Others questioning the Migrant Ministry, included George Royal and Fritz Stein. Much of the questioning centered around the legislative goals adopted by the last annual meeting of the organization. The first four raised the question of the pro union position of the organization. They are:

1. Inclusion of farm workers under the provisions of the National Labor Relations Act and accessibility to the services of the National Labor Relations Board.
2. Federal minimum wage coverage for ALL seasonal and migratory workers.
3. Reassessment of residency requirements and the elimination of those which serve as barriers to migrant workers eligibility for public assistance and other community services.
4. Continued protection against unnecessary importation of off-shore labor which has adverse effects on our domestic seasonal and migratory farm workers.

The conflict was not resolved. There are at least two other meetings scheduled. The first, on June 7, will be between George Wedgworth and the National Council of Churches. Wedgworth has been trying to set up this meeting for two years. After this, A. Waldie Holroyd, president of the Migrant Ministry, proposed another meeting to evaluate the groups work in the community.

THE END

The earth seemed to shudder. The sky to shake;
An ominous glow from the East. No mistake.
A mushroom cloud, Like a pillar of doom;
The silent hush, That filled the room.
The almighty God, Looking down from above;
Saying, "This wouldn't have happened,
Had there only been love."

This terrible end I could not foresee,
When I created the earth, man and tree.

Instead of a fiasco of horror and shame.

LENIN PRIZE FOR 'CHURCHMAN'

Because an international organization ostensibly is devoted to religious purposes, many citizens in many lands assume that such a group is genuinely devoted to the highest goals in life and is not a mask for political activity.

A case in point is the World Council of Churches, which has its headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland. Innumerable innocent churchmen no doubt long have assumed that the WCC was free of the taint of anti-Western politics.

Unquestionably, therefore, many of these churchmen must have received a rude shock May 1 when the Communist May Day when the government of the Soviet Union announced that the Rev. Dr. Martin Niemöller, president of the World Council of Churches, had been awarded one of its highest honors — the Lenin Prize.

The character of the Lenin Prize cannot be mistaken. It is given to those who, in one fashion or another, have advanced the interest of the communist world. Previous recipients of the Lenin Prize include Dictator Fidel Castro of Cuba and former Dictators Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria and Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana.

News reports received in this country did not specify the reasons ascribed for giving the award to Dr. Niemöller. But knowledgeable Americans will recall that last year, Dr. Niemöller went to North Vietnam and fiercely condemned the United States for its aerial attacks on Ho Chi Minh's bastion. This attack on the U. S., at a critical time in the American-South Vietnamese struggle against communist aggression, was of major help to the communists in influencing "world opinion."

Those who have made a study of the World Council of Churches do not find it extraordinary, however, that its president should receive the Lenin Prize from the USSR. For years the WCC has been consistent in its opposition to moves by the West to protect freedom. It was strenuously against U. S. development of the hydrogen bomb, though that might have provided a nuclear shield for the free nations of the world.

At the same time, the WCC has been strangely silent about the horrors that take place behind the Iron and Bamboo Curtains. Indeed, the leaders of the WCC have steadily promoted a dialogue with communists, a not surprising attitude inasmuch as leaders of the state-controlled churches in Eastern Europe and the USSR now are represented in the WCC.

The award of the Lenin Prize to the president of the World Council of Churches provides a timely and interesting background to recent speeches in the United States by the Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, former head of the National Council of Churches who is now general secretary of the WCC and, as such, right-hand man to Dr. Niemöller.

Speaking April 26 at Newark, Conn., Dr. Blake castigated the United States, the country of which he is a citizen and to which he owes loyalty. In a brutal attack on the American defense of freedom in Southeast Asia, he said: "The picture of a great and wealthy nation mobilizing each month more and more of its unparalleled technological might to bring a tiny long-suffering, dark-skinned nation to capitulation means clearly that the more we win the more we lose and each American soldier dead or wounded is a useless sacrifice."

This is, of course, a cruel and false picture of the American defense effort in Asia. The U. S. isn't picking on a "tiny long-suffering" nation. North Vietnam is a front and proxy for Moscow and Peking. Certainly this "tiny" state didn't build the exotic SAM missiles that are fixed at American aircraft. But Dr. Blake had no word of criticism for the Soviets or Chinese, nor did he refer to the campaign of terrorism that the North Vietnamese conduct against men, women and children in South Vietnam.

As for the reference to "dark-skinned," that is an unworthy piece of distortion aimed at misleading Americans and foreigners. The Vietnam war is not a war of whites against dark-skinned people. The U. S. is in Vietnam at the invitation of the free people of Vietnam who want to escape Hanoi's tyranny. Moreover, American forces in Vietnam include many Negroes, who are building a record of valor that is a credit to their nation and to their race.

Clearly, Dr. Eugene Carson Blake is following in the footsteps of Dr. Niemöller. He is hitting the U. S. as hard as the German pacifist clergyman who won the Soviet award. In Dr. Blake's speeches may earn for him a Lenin Prize.

rain, which has continued for over a period of three months. We have been very fortunate in controlling a great number of fires that have originated in the area and thereby preventing the necessity of closing highways and causing people with respiratory trouble to leave the area which would affect the economy of the entire lower East Coast.

Perhaps if we had used some of our past appropriation for the employment of single tongued public relations men and lawyers, we would not now be faced with a serious battle to continue our existence. I mention this for a paragraph, for it is the opinion of this Department that practically every state agency employs a lawyer and public relations man, where we have attempted to use the taxpayers' money to a better advantage and at no time have we paid out the first dime for either of these positions, and in case there was a surplus left at the end of our fiscal year, we have always returned it to the State.

I am sure that you are well acquainted with the efficiency and economy that this Department has been operating under. For example, practically every piece of equipment owned by this Department was designed and built under my supervision in our own shop, and in many instances had a similar type of equipment been purchased, it would have cost the State thousands of dollars more.

Now the only reason I am pleading with you to continue the operation of this Department is not with the thought in mind of continuing me in my present position as I have every intention to retire as the Chief and Agency Head upon the expiration of my present term, but I would like to recommend that the State of Florida should make every effort to continue this Department, if for no other reason than to give South Florida a clean and pure air as possible, and eliminate air pollution, which will become a very serious factor should the area of the Everglades be left with no supervision of any State Agency.

I am sure it is not necessary for me to mention again how unattended and uncontrolled fires create the most serious traffic hazards, as well as destroy many highways that are built with a muck base and destroy many acres of deep muck land in some parts of the District, where the landowners have always cooperated and contributed many man hours at their own expense. I hope you will make every effort to have the small appropriation that is allotted to the Everglades Fire Control District for the benefit of South Florida re-instated, and that you have made a comparison where funds sent to Tallahassee from this area have been allotted and will be spent, for instance $440,000, for the control of fire ants in North Florida and over $200,000, that is allotted for the purchase of serum for the prevention of hog cholera in both Central and North Florida. These funds are contributed from the General Revenue Fund, the same as our Fire Control Fund.

Thomas

He explained that Roberts felt the study was needed because of the tremendous growth of the population of Florida and the expansion of the activities of the welfare department. The scope of public welfare encompasses many areas of our society and involves nearly all levels of government, Thomas said.

The resolution provides that the legislative council shall work with and have full cooperation of the state department of public welfare and all county welfare agencies.

"I think Mr. Roberts should be complimented for recognizing the need to improve the services of the department as well as its efficiency which results in greater service to the public," Thomas said.

REFLECTION FOR MEMORIAL DAY

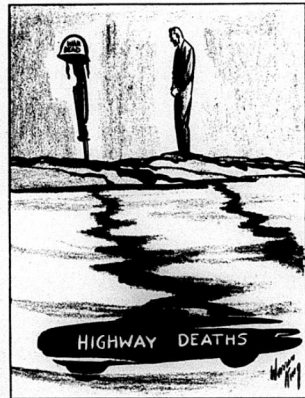

We have come once again to that time of year when Americans pause to honor the memory of those who have given that last full measure of devotion on battlefields at home and abroad. As Abraham Lincoln said: "It is fitting and proper that we do this."

As we pay our respects to the nation's war dead, it also is fitting that we turn our thoughts to the peace for which we all pray. It is fitting, too, to reflect on life—not death—and on ways in which life may be preserved.

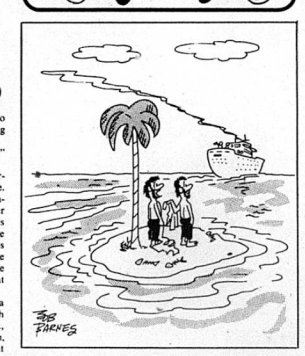

No more fitting time than Memorial Day could be found for this reflection, for the holiday signals the beginning of the summer highway carnage. In a year's time more people are killed on our highways than died in combat in all of World War I.

Automobiles are safer today than they have ever been. So too, are the highways over which we travel. That leaves the problem squarely on the shoulders of the third element in any design for greater highway safety—the person behind the wheel.

One of the great freedoms we Americans share is the right to travel in our country when and where we please. It is a freedom to be preserved for all of us. Let's not abuse it.

St. Elizabeth's Guild Hears Topic 'Christian Witnessing'

The ladies of St. Elizabeth's Guild of St. John the Apostle Episcopal Church in Belle Glade, enjoyed an exceptionally interesting program during their regular monthly meeting held on May 17th at the home of Mrs. Carl Waggoner.

Mrs. Virginia Lively presented the program on "Christian Witnessing" after which the ladies enjoyed a lengthy and informative discussion period on the subject.

During the business meeting directed by Mrs. James Winchester, president, letters were read from Rev. William T. Mumford in Jamaica highlighting some of their ways of life and activities in that area in response to a Lenten gift.

Missionary Mother To Show Colored Slides Of Viet Nam

Wednesday evening May 31, 7:30 p. m., at the Belle Glade Alliance Church, Mrs. E. E. Hilderbrandt, mother of Rev. David A. Frazier, missionary to Viet Nam, will show colored slides of Viet Nam taken when she visited the mission field Christmas of 1966.

Rev. Frazier and wife, Janice, are missionaries to the A-Original Tribes of Viet Nam. However since the spread of the war, they are not allowed to go more than ten miles from Pleiku, as the roads are not safe. They do go to the village close to town so as to minister to the refugees.

After graduating from Toccoa Falls Bible College, Ga., with a B. A. degree in Bible Education, Rev. Frazier began his missionary work in Palm Beach County when he

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you." —John 15:12 (RSV)

ON a radio program the speaker was talking about the spiritual man underneath the mortal exterior of each person we meet. In making his point clear, he used the illustration of the children who come to our homes on Halloween. They dress as pirates, witches, or ghosts, but we know that underneath the masks they are little boys and girls. His conclusion was that as Christians we should learn to look with spiritual eyes for this spiritual man in persons.

Shortly after I heard this program, a man to whom I had paid scant attention gave the invocation at a Kiwanis Club meeting. It was a beautiful prayer, and I thought as I listened that this is the way we see the spiritual man—with our spiritual eyes. I looked upon him as a child of God.

As I look for Godlike qualities in the people I deal with day by day, I find it easier to be tolerant—and helpful. With this attitude it is easier to follow Christ's command to love others as He loves them.

De Interes En Los Glades

Los Condados de Palm Beach, Hendry, Glades y de mas adyacentes Condados son considerados desastre areas (areas de Desastre) debido a la falta de lluvia por casi dos meses. Se celebró la pasada semana un mitin de emergencia del Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Disaster Committee. Pues se estima que 65,000 cabezas de ganado se hallan afectados por la escasez de agua. La falta de aguaceros tambien ha estropeado mucho terreno de pasto, y el nivel del Lago Okechobee ha seguido bajando diariamente.

Pero la parte de los canales del Central and Southern Flood Control District, han sido mantenidos a tal nivel que el musk ha seguido saturado y los pastos y siembra de vegetales no han sido afectados todavía.

En algunos areas donde la tierra es mas alta puede haber algun problema.

Como resultado de este mitin de emergencia se votó aprobar la construcción de fosos, hoyos y pozos para aumentar el abastecimiento de agua para el ganado.

El grupo tambien sugirió que se alimentara el ganado con micles, pienso de maíz dulce, y pulpa de frutas cítricas, siempre y cuando no posean demasiado insecticida estas ultimas. El melado puede ser derramado sobre la hierba muerta, lo que las hace mas grata al paladar del ganado.

Las areas de Hendry County y de Lake Harbor han sido mas afectadas que las del Glades.

Antes de abrir los pozos, se debe tener el equipo de bombeo apropiado, y demas facilidades para depositar el agua.

El costo estimado para cada pozo no excede de $350. El 80% del costo de perforar, forrar y construir las facilidades para el agua es proporcionado por el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos, segun declaración de la junta.

Los estanques u hoyos pueden ser cuadrados, rectangular o circular, y deben tener un fondo minimo 16x16 con un maximo de 16x32 pies. Su costo no excedería de $125.

Los circulares deben tener una circunferencia lo menos de 18 pies y un maximo de 26 pies, con fondo para proveer lo menos 2 pies de agua. Su costo no excediendo $175.

En Belle Glade, las llaves del nuevo Municipal Library Building.

ing, en el Parque McDonald, fueron entregadas al City Manager Mr. Tevis Huguley, por el presidente del Blanton and Unwin Contractors de Pahokee, marcando la aceptación oficial de la edificación, por la ciudad de Belle Glade.

Pensaban terminar para esta semana la instalación de las alfombras en los suelos. Pues de que abran para el proximo mes de Julio.

La dedicación oficial de este nuevo edificio será demorada hasta Septiembre, segun declaración del City Manager.

Los muebles y decoración interior estan siendo comprados con dinero donado al comité del Belle Glade Woman's Club. Y va a ser comenzado a preparar el terreno frente al edificio y en la parte norte. Se proyecta construir tambien un driveway que va de S. Main Street hasta el fondo de la Biblioteca.

Believe it, lady. Richard makes it happen. Without Richard, and thousands of other Southern Bell people, you couldn't even call next door, much less New Jersey.

You say it all seems so automatic? Good. That's the way it should seem. We all (including Richard) want you to take smooth, fast, efficient telephone service for granted. But if you think it's not personal, you're wrong. It's very personal. If you don't believe it, ask Richard's mother.

Teacher of the Week: Coach Hammond

One of this year's new teachers is Coach Maurice Hammond. He teaches Biology and Physical Science as well as coaching baseball and being a backfield football coach. Before coming to Belle Glade Coach Hammond worked for five years in the Metallurgical section of Ingalls Shipbuilding in Louisiana. At Ingalls he held two jobs: as auditor, checked the work of the other men, and as supervisor he was in charge assigning jobs and training operators.

Moorestown, Mississippi, Coach Hammond's hometown, is also where he taught the first six years of his teaching career.

After graduating from high school, he spent two years in Germany in the artillery division of the Army. After serving in the army he enrolled at Parkington Junior College where, besides regular academics he played football for two years. Coach Hammond finished his education at Mississippi Southern where he played baseball for two years.

Seniors Dress Up and Down

Each year the Seniors are given certain privileges. Among them are "Dress-up" and "Dress-down" days. Last Tuesday Senior girls arrived at school in heels and church dresses. The boys wore coats and ties. Although the girls went home with tired feet and the boys had hot necks, the Seniors appreciated this privilege.

Tomorrow "Dress-down" Day will be observed. This is known as "Slop" Day to the Seniors. They come to school dressed sloppily. Of course, there will be limits as to how sloppy they will be allowed to dress!

Students Of The Week

Lee Richmond

Doris Willits

Golf is Thomas Lee Richmond's favorite sport and pastime. Lee spends much of his time on the golf course and has been a member of the golf team for the past two years. Here at school he is a member of the most enjoyable experiences in my life.

Lee's outdoor activities are varied. He enjoys hunting, swimming, skiing, skindiving, and of course, golf. In his spare time, if not doing one of these things one could probably find him at home asleep. Born November 24, 1949, he has lived and gone to school in Belle Glade all his life. After graduation he plans to attend Palm Beach Junior College and later hopes to become a dentist. Lee has one sister and one brother, Diane, 12 and Barney, 15. Barney is a sophomore and Diane is in the seventh grade.

Lee plans to work this summer and earn money for college.

Playing Comfort Goodpasture in the senior class production of "Rally Round the Flag, Boys," was Doris Gertrude Willits. Doris, as she is called by her friends, said, "It was one of the most enjoyable experiences in my life."

Doris participates in many extra curricular activities. She is a member of the Beta Club and Pep Club. Holding the offices of Secretary of the Future Teachers of America and Degree Chairman of the Future Homemakers of America, Doris also has time to keep up her grades. She was among the 17 seniors to be a high academic achievement student for her high school career.

Doris leaves plenty of her spare time to do what she likes best. She enjoys cooking and writing letters. She said, "When I can arrange it, I LOVE to go to the beach!"

Doris has distinct likes and dislikes. She loves the color yellow. Football is her favorite sport although she enjoys all kinds of sports. History is Doris' favorite subject. Doris prefers a dark green Jaguar XKE but doesn't complain with her present car, a 1966 red and white, Buick Skylark. People with "split personalities" are her pet peeve. Her favorite record is "Cherish" by The Association.

After graduation Doris is going to attend Young Harris for two years. She then wants to go the next two years to the University of Florida and to eventually receive her Masters in Elementary education. She hopes to become an airline stewardess and fly for one year. After all this, she then plans to follow a career in teaching.

Doris' father is owner of Willits Store in South Bay. Her mother teaches at South Bay Elementary. Doris is the only child left at home. Her two married brothers have attended University of Florida. Her oldest brother, Dan, recently received his Masters in Engineering. Dick, is now working on a degree in law.

Today is Janice Papp's birthday. Happy Birthday, Janice.

Seniors Build Door Of Success

Members of the Class of 1967 will construct the door of success Friday, May 26, at 8 p. m. during the Class Night activities.

The high achievement students will build the door. The honor students will open the door of success with the keys of individuality, knowledge, faith, integrity, perseverance, and determination.

The keys of the door will be presented to junior class President Johnny Williams by senior class President Ronnie Gerrey.

Old memories will be revived as the entire senior class presents a skit highlighting its high school career.

Awards and several scholarships will be presented by Mr. Pelton Morris to the outstanding seniors.

Baccalaureate To Be Held Sunday

Baccalaureate services will put the seniors one step closer to graduation. The services will be held on May 28, at 8 p. m. in BGHS Gymnasium. This year there are four area ministers who will participate in the service. The main speaker will be Rev. Watkins from Stuart. This is the first year Belle Glade has ever had an out-of-town speaker.

The BGHS Glee Club will sing "Eternal Life" and "How Excellent Thy Name."

Dancing to the TASMANS music was enjoyed by those who attended the breakfast at the Civic Center.

Awards Day To Be Held

Tomorrow, the 10th annual award's day will be held in the LSH gym.

There are medals, certificates and scholarships given to students who have maintained a "B" average or better in a particular subject for the school term.

Students are eagerly awaiting this special day to see if they are going to receive special recognition from the principal and faculty members.

Boy Scouts Installed

On Tuesday, May 15, the members of Boy Scout Troop No. 771 and Explorer Post No. 771 were formally installed at Lake Shore Jr.-Sr. High School.

The program was held in the gymnasium at 9:30 a.m. and Mr. J. W. Perry, Scoutmaster, troop 771 was the guest speaker. Mr. Perry was introduced by Mr. Hoover Tolbert, Assistant Scoutmaster.

A very impressive Investiture Service was conducted by Mr. Nathaniel Adams, Boy Scout Executive of West Palm Beach.

Following the program special presentations were made to each member of the Boy Scout Committee for their support to the organization this year.

Both the troop, numbering 19 scouts, and the post, numbering 29, have been activated this year and have participated in many social and civic activities.

The troop members have journeyed to Port St. Lucie Locks for a one-day outing, held a mile cook-out and so far have a baseball record of 1 loss, 1 tie and no wins.

Several school-closing events are planned including a trip to Cape Kennedy. The explorer post is currently making plans for a uniform drive. Mr. Chas. E. Todd, Jr., Dean of Boys, serves as Advisor to the Explorer Post.

Kampus Highlights

The Juniors really put some restrictions on the prom this year. But in spite of it all I'm sure everyone enjoyed themselves.

A few of our students traveled to the T. V. station recently to model.

The Band and Chorus are really practicing hard for all of the upcoming exercises.

The Physical Education Classes did a swell job.

Awards day is May 26. I'm sure all of you will be receiving an award.

Don't forget Senior Class Night exercises tonight.

Well, Seniors, how do you feel now that you have only two more weeks to go? I understand you've received your invitations.

Spring training has ended for our football boys. We know you are able and ready to win.

Air Force Test scores have returned. The results of the test taken for the vocational school have returned also.

A representative from FAMU visited our school recently.

Maggie Fuller

What Is A Junior At LSHS?

A Junior is a person who has completed his sophomore year, and is now ready to go to the prom. A Junior is also one who is looking forward to a big year. That's The Senior Year, and you know of course that means getting a class ring but to us it won't be just a class ring it will be "The Class Ring."

Only one more week to go, or would you believe two, before we are really bona fide Lake Shore Juniors. What a glorious title! It wasn't easy but we made it. During our sophomore year we really enjoyed taking English from Mrs. Roberts, giving book reports and taking Biology from Mr. Phillips.

Attention all Freshmen enjoy your Sophomore year make the best of it and cultivate good study habits.

TO THE JUNIORS FROM THE SOPHOMORES

"Look Out, the class of '70 is on the way."

Intramural

Football Played

The Bobcats had their first and only intramural football game Tuesday on the Lake Shore High Athletic Field.

Judging from the way they were hitting and considering the fact that they are inexperienced the Bobcats will have a pretty good season.

The Gold beat the Purple by a score of 19-0. The Gold never gave the Purple a chance.

The Gold scorers were: Win-tale Coleman who scored on a fumble and a run, and Freddie Allen who scored on a run around right end.

Charles Walker and Bobby McCauley will be the two top players to work for the next year.

Charles Walker will probably be the best end in the state because of his great magnetic hands and Bobby McCauley will literally step over his opponents with some great defensive plays. So with these two fine players and ten more experienced guys the Bobcats should come out on top.

Reporter Ralph Jasper

Two Students Model In Homemaking Show Tuesday

On Tuesday afternoon, May 9, Mrs. Inez Mack, Homemaking teacher, along with Pearl Willis and Gloria Butts journeyed to Palm Beach, Florida to Scripps Howard Channel 5 to model for the Homemaking Show. The program will be seen on channel 5, 8 o'clock a.m. on May 14 and May 21.

Pearlie modeled a formal white gown with a low cut back accented with mint green shoes and white buttoned gloves. Gloria who was chosen as an alternate wore a sleeveless A-line dress of summer print linen with white accessories.

Schools represented were: East Lake, Pahokee High, Carver High, Jupiter High, Lake Worth High, Roosevelt High, John F. Kennedy High, Belle Glade High, Boynton Beach Junior High, Seacrest High School and Lincoln Jr. High.

Valerie Norris Celebrates First Birthday

Miss Valerie Ann Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norris of Pompano Beach formerly of Belle Glade, was honored on her first birthday. Mothers Day, May 14, 1967.

A cake made to resemble a May Day dance was decorated with a red and white 10 inch candle in the center, and different colors of satin ribbons hanging down to little dancing girls.

A buffet luncheon was served. Guests attending were both grandmothers, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Prescott and sons, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Norris and Bill, from Belle Glade. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Zawadzki and children from Belle Glade and Mr. and Mrs. George Nolan and girls.

Valerie received many lovely gifts and everyone had a wonderful time.

'Smoke Rings' Demonstrated To Extension Homemakers

The Belle Glade Extension Homemakers Club met for a covered dish luncheon and regular meeting at the McDonald Park Shelter on Wednesday, May 17.

An interesting program was presented. Mrs. Karen Jackson, assistant Home Extension Agent from West Palm Beach demonstrated the making of a new popular fad "Smoke Rings." These are scarfs or neck accessories, cut on the bias and can be worn with suits or dresses. Mrs. Jackson also demonstrated how to insert the invisible zipper, with the stitches not showing on the outside.

Mrs. W. R. Hooker, president, said there was a good attendance and everyone enjoyed the program and the luncheon.

This was the last meeting of the current year. The Club will resume meeting the 3rd Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. in September. The schedule of the regular meeting has been changed from the 3rd Thursday morning of each month.

Bridal Shower Compliments Claudia Ludlow

The honoree wore a gray and white striped dress and a pink gladioli corsage. Her mother, Mrs. M. E. Ludlow wore a red linen dress with a white gladioli corsage. The corsages were presented by the hostesses.

The shower was with a white linen cloth was graced with a crystal punch bowl surrounded with sprays of spring flowers.

Assisting in serving were Becky Symes from FSU, Tallahassee accompanied by classmate Lucy Parker and Sherry Knight, student at University of South Florida, Tampa, who were there for the weekend.

More than 35 guests called during the afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

PBC Observes Extension Home Economics Week

Extension Home Economics are for everyone in Palm Beach County—for men and women, adults and youth through its programs covering all home economics subjects from consumer information to the latest in nutrition.

Extension Home Economics is financed by your tax dollar through your local Board of County Commissioners, the University of Florida and the USDA. Miss Mary Todd, Extension Home Economics Agent, assisted by Mrs. Marylou Shinar and Mrs. Karen Jackson.

Your Extension Home Economics Agents analyze existing trends and problems, working out a program and bringing the latest information from the University to help solve these problems. Extension Home Economics programs are geared to serve all the county and develop skills at all age groups and income levels.

Extension Homemakers Clubs and 4-H work directly with the Agents. Approximately 800 women are organized into 16 Extension Homemakers Clubs in Palm Beach County. A president and delegate from each club make up the County Extension Homemakers Council. The Council cooperates with health, safety, conservation and public affairs groups to promote both individual and community development. Volunteer leaders are trained by the Agents. The leaders carry information back to their respective clubs.

Extension Home Economics Week being observed each week, May 21-27, in Palm Beach County.

TIME, MOTHER NATURE OR MAN'S

By Russell Kay

I just can't understand all this hullabaloo about TIME.

While humans rave and tear their hair, it doesn't seem to worry Mother Nature in the least.

We have daylight and we have dark. The sun rises and the sun sets and it appears that all nature is able to adjust itself except man.

We have known for a long time that the days are longer in the summer and shorter in the winter and the time change is about a minute a day.

We have gotten ourselves so embroiled with alarm clocks, radio and television schedules, railroad and airline schedules, postal regulations, time clocks and the like that we are running around in circles.

No matter where they happen to live roosters crow at the proper time. Bees leave their hives in search of honey and birds begin chirping in spite of the fact that they never heard of daylight time.

We thought we had the problem solved when we set up time zones. Eastern, Central, Mountain and Western, then some joker comes along and throws a monkey wrench in the works by suggesting that we turn the clock ahead one hour in the summer and back an hour in the winter.

Some states adopted the plan while others didn't and it resulted in a grand and glorious mess. It got to where nobody knew what time it was anywhere not even the clocks. Some would faithfully bong 6 o'clock in one place while others were bonging 7 o'clock somewhere else. You would board a plane in one place at a certain time and arrive somewhere else before you started.

Personally, I never knew what time it was when I first wake up until I look at the clock and even then I'm not sure. In our homes my alarm clock may say 6 a. m., the grandfather clock in the dining room may say 6:15, the clock in the living room, 5:30 and the one in the kitchen 6:10. If I am foolish enough to look at my wrist watch I will probably find that it stops at 4 a. m.

Here in Florida we are so far east that daylight saving time puts us so far ahead that we find ourselves sending our children to school in the dark.

We have to turn on the lights to eat breakfast and read the morning paper. Then we get to work in the middle of the afternoon when it is so hot we don't feel like working in the garden, mowing the lawn or washing the dog.

Maybe if we really wanted to be sensible about it we could solve the problem by setting our clocks ahead or back at the case might be one minute a day. Then we would be right on the beam and time would standstill so to speak but who wants to be anyone of a slave to a clock that we already are?

For my part I would rather depend on Mother Nature. When she says it is daylight it is time to get up in my book regardless of what the clock might say. If for any reason I want to get up an hour earlier, there is nothing to stop me and who cares what the clock says?

Abortion, Yes or No

Dr. John L. Grady has prepared an eight page booklet titled "Abortion, Yes or No," which will be distributed to legislators and other interested persons.

Dr. Grady, considering the arguments for liberalizing abortion laws, concludes "In final summary it must be stated categorically that abortion is medically unnecessary and morally detestable."

"The question now before the people and their legislators is whether or not there should be a lifting of restrictions on abortion."

"Opponents to abortion state that there are really few instances where the baby actually threatens the life of the mother. Many recognized medical authorities in the field of Obstetrics and Gynecology have clearly stated that in the present day of excellent medical and surgical care, the situation rarely if ever exists where the baby must be sacrificed to preserve the life of the mother. Thousands of physicians have never in these thousands of pregnancies seen a single instance where the infant had to be sacrificed to save the mother, nor have they seen a situation where a mother has been lost for failure of the physician to perform an abortion. Furthermore, they state that should this critical situation actually arise the present laws permit this type of 'therapeutic abortion' to save the mother. In fact these physicians state that the law is already rather liberal."

Those opposed to abortion certainly agree that where pregnancy is not wanted or is socially unacceptable because of illegitimacy, rape or incest, it is indeed unfortunate that there is an emotional as well as a physical stigma involved. But the psychic scar not further compounded by the guilt of having destroyed that living being which was at least half her own. The reason to destroy a fetus may appear good, but can it in any way equal the wrong committed by the destruction of that infant. The child is an innocent being in no way responsible and should not be punished for either the crime or misjudgment of either parent.

On occasion some mother will consume drugs or chemicals, receive radiation, or contract some illness such as Rubella (German measles) that may damage the fetus she is carrying. However, because some percentage of these babies so exposed will have physical defects, is it reasonable that all those exposed should be subjected to abortion?

Do we have the right to decide that the sickly should not have life? I do not think so. But for the sake of argument let us say that defective fetuses should be destroyed. Even then does it follow that nine normal pregnancies should be aborted along with the one abnormal. It would be ninety percent more humane to wait until all ten are born, then kill all the affected one. If we at this stage decide we can kill the unborn because of physical impairment, then why not those already born. What of those many cases where a child now living is blind or deaf or has sustained crippling injuries? What of the aged who have become a burden to society? If the doctor, the mother, and the legislator can combine in their judgement to decide that a baby is not to live, then who in turn is to decide when the mother, the doctor, or the legislator may not live?

"Since life is precious, the burden of proof must be on the abortionists to prove beyond doubt that the embryo, fetus, or baby they are destroying in the uterus is not human. . . . One must not become involved in the emotion of a single case to the point that he loses sight of the true medical and moral logic which must be applied to the overall subject, particularly when legislation is involved."

No matter what the arguments used nor the emotions of any particular case, Dr. Grady states, abortion "is an evil means to a questionable good end for the mother."

Dr. Grady, in his study, presents the definition of abortion, the five most common arguments in favor of abortion and the counter-arguments against abortion. In conclusion, he states:

1. The right of the unborn child to life is infinitely outweighed by the desires of others to destroy it, whatever the basis of these desires.

2. Historically abortifacient doctor, or the legislator may not live?

3. The liberalization of abortion laws now, will ultimately lead to even greater liberalization of the freedom to destroy not only the unborn but also the living.

4. There is no imperative medical necessity for abortion.

5. Although some serious problems exist during certain pregnancies, our effort must be directed at solving those difficulties in a legal and moral manner and not taking the easy out by destruction of the fetus. This includes further research into vaccine against diseases, more careful screening of drugs to prevent damage to developing fetuses, and continually improving maternal infant care. In other words, we must accept a greater social responsibility towards the fetus, not a greater social medical irresponsibility in permitting its destruction.

6. That the liberalization of abortion, if permitted, would be another step in the decaying moral values of our current society."

Thousands of words have already been reported on the drought stricken areas of Florida and the plight of the farmers, growers and ranchers in the drought stricken areas. The situation has not been exaggerated; conditions are just as critical as described by the news media.

One phase which has received little or no notice is the cooperation which has existed from the start between the appropriate county, state and federal agencies, and various agricultural organizations.

I am not being critical of the news media for this oversight. It is just one of those things which escapes attention during a fast-paced program such as we have been initiating.

Throughout the disaster area there have been countless instances in which one farmer has helped another. Each, although burdened with his individual problems, has been ready to assist others when possible.

Our farmers are fierce competitors in the market place, but their readiness and willingness to lend assistance to a fellow farmer is just the opposite. There is a kindred spirit between our farmers that is not always found in other industries.

A word of appreciation, I feel, certainly is due the news media. The understanding of the disaster as it exists and the reporting of the facts has been exemplary. It would be difficult, indeed, for me to recall an agricultural emergency with better coverage or a better word of appreciation.

Bob Lee, Personnel Director of Glades Sugar House, was the speaker.

Mr. Edith Freedlund was presented with a gold Welcome Wagon pin by the Executive Supervisor for Florida, Mrs. Judy Hurlburt of Winter Park, R. L. Mrs. Helen Ditzler, area supervisor in charge of the Glades, adds her congratulations.

Welcome Wagon International held the first Florida Hostess-Supervisor's Meeting at the Holiday Inn in Belle Glade, Fla. Monday.

Hostesses from as far north as Tampa-St. Petersburg thru to Naples on the West Coast and from Vero Beach through Homestead on the East Coast attended this meeting, with approximately 50 people in attendance.

Hostesses were Miss Margaret Irvin, Mrs. Christine Smith, and Mrs. Virginia Thomas, Mrs. Mabel R. Lutz, Principal, Gove Elementary School.

Gov. Claude Kirk has appointed Fred D. Leary, president of General Telephone Co. of Florida, Tampa, as chairman of the Florida Council of 100.

Henry Cragg, board chairman of Minute Maid Co., predicts 1967 will be the "most critical year in the history of the Florida citrus industry."

6. That the liberalization of abortion, if permitted, would be another step in the decaying moral values of our current society."

Thousands of words have already been reported on the drought stricken areas of Florida and the plight of the farmers, growers and ranchers in the drought stricken areas. The situation has not been exaggerated; conditions are just as critical as described by the news media.

One phase which has received little or no notice is the cooperation which has existed from the start between the appropriate county, state and federal agencies, and various agricultural organizations.

I am not being critical of the news media for this oversight. It is just one of those things which escapes attention during a fast-paced program such as we have been initiating.

Throughout the disaster area there have been countless instances in which one farmer has helped another. Each, although burdened with his individual problems, has been ready to assist others when possible.

Our farmers are fierce competitors in the market place, but their readiness and willingness to lend assistance to a fellow farmer is just the opposite. There is a kindred spirit between our farmers that is not always found in other industries.

A word of appreciation, I feel, certainly is due the news media. The understanding of the disaster as it exists and the reporting of the facts has been exemplary. It would be difficult, indeed, for me to recall an agricultural emergency with better coverage or a better word of appreciation.

Bob Lee, Personnel Director of Glades Sugar House, was the speaker.

Mr. Edith Freedlund was presented with a gold Welcome Wagon pin by the Executive Supervisor for Florida, Mrs. Judy Hurlburt of Winter Park, R. L. Mrs. Helen Ditzler, area supervisor in charge of the Glades, adds her congratulations.

Welcome Wagon International held the first Florida Hostess-Supervisor's Meeting at the Holiday Inn in Belle Glade, Fla. Monday.

Hostesses from as far north as Tampa-St. Petersburg thru to Naples on the West Coast and from Vero Beach through Homestead on the East Coast attended this meeting, with approximately 50 people in attendance.

Hostesses were Miss Margaret Irvin, Mrs. Christine Smith, and Mrs. Virginia Thomas, Mrs. Mabel R. Lutz, Principal, Gove Elementary School.

Gov. Claude Kirk has appointed Fred D. Leary, president of General Telephone Co. of Florida, Tampa, as chairman of the Florida Council of 100.

Henry Cragg, board chairman of Minute Maid Co., predicts 1967 will be the "most critical year in the history of the Florida citrus industry."

Dr. John L. Grady has prepared an eight page booklet titled "Abortion, Yes or No," which will be distributed to legislators and other interested persons.

Dr. Grady, considering the arguments for liberalizing abortion laws, concludes "In final summary it must be stated categorically that abortion is medically unnecessary and morally detestable."

"The question now before the people and their legislators is whether or not there should be a lifting of restrictions on abortion."

"Opponents to abortion state that there are really few instances where the baby actually threatens the life of the mother. Many recognized medical authorities in the field of Obstetrics and Gynecology have clearly stated that in the present day of excellent medical and surgical care, the situation rarely if ever exists where the baby must be sacrificed to preserve the life of the mother. Thousands of physicians have never in these thousands of pregnancies seen a single instance where the infant had to be sacrificed to save the mother, nor have they seen a situation where a mother has been lost for failure of the physician to perform an abortion. Furthermore, they state that should this critical situation actually arise the present laws permit this type of 'therapeutic abortion' to save the mother. In fact these physicians state that the law is already rather liberal."

Those opposed to abortion certainly agree that where pregnancy is not wanted or is socially unacceptable because of illegitimacy, rape or incest, it is indeed unfortunate that there is an emotional as well as a physical stigma involved. But the psychic scar not further compounded by the guilt of having destroyed that living being which was at least half her own. The reason to destroy a fetus may appear good, but can it in any way equal the wrong committed by the destruction of that infant. The child is an innocent being in no way responsible and should not be punished for either the crime or misjudgment of either parent.

On occasion some mother will consume drugs or chemicals, receive radiation, or contract some illness such as Rubella (German measles) that may damage the fetus she is carrying. However, because some percentage of these babies so exposed will have physical defects, is it reasonable that all those exposed should be subjected to abortion?

Do we have the right to decide that the sickly should not have life? I do not think so. But for the sake of argument let us say that defective fetuses should be destroyed. Even then does it follow that nine normal pregnancies should be aborted along with the one abnormal. It would be ninety percent more humane to wait until all ten are born, then kill all the affected one. If we at this stage decide we can kill the unborn because of physical impairment, then why not those already born. What of those many cases where a child now living is blind or deaf or has sustained crippling injuries? What of the aged who have become a burden to society? If the doctor, the mother, and the legislator can combine in their judgement to decide that a baby is not to live, then who in turn is to decide when the mother, the doctor, or the legislator may not live?

"Since life is precious, the burden of proof must be on the abortionists to prove beyond doubt that the embryo, fetus, or baby they are destroying in the uterus is not human. . . . One must not become involved in the emotion of a single case to the point that he loses sight of the true medical and moral logic which must be applied to the overall subject, particularly when legislation is involved."

No matter what the arguments used nor the emotions of any particular case, Dr. Grady states, abortion "is an evil means to a questionable good end for the mother."

Dr. Grady, in his study, presents the definition of abortion, the five most common arguments in favor of abortion and the counter-arguments against abortion. In conclusion, he states:

1. The right of the unborn child to life is infinitely outweighed by the desires of others to destroy it, whatever the basis of these desires.

2. Historically abortifacient doctor, or the legislator may not live?

3. The liberalization of abortion laws now, will ultimately lead to even greater liberalization of the freedom to destroy not only the unborn but also the living.

4. There is no imperative medical necessity for abortion.

5. Although some serious problems exist during certain pregnancies, our effort must be directed at solving those difficulties in a legal and moral manner and not taking the easy out by destruction of the fetus. This includes further research into vaccine against diseases, more careful screening of drugs to prevent damage to developing fetuses, and continually improving maternal infant care. In other words, we must accept a greater social responsibility towards the fetus, not a greater social medical irresponsibility in permitting its destruction.

6. That the liberalization of abortion, if permitted, would be another step in the decaying moral values of our current society."

IN SERVICE

Peacock

Airman Wayne Peacock, whose mother, Mrs. Millie Peaden, lives at 346 E. Seventh St., Pahokee has been selected for technical training at Chanute AFB, Ill., as a U. S. Air Force aircraft maintenance specialist.

The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. His new school is part of the Air Training Command which conducts hundreds of specialized courses to provide technical training to personnel for the nation's aerospace force.

Airman Peacock is a 1965 graduate of Pahokee High School.

Baldwin

Captain Kenneth Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Baldwin, 528 S. W. Tenth St., completed an eight-week patient administration course at the Brooke Army Medical Center, Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., April 14.

During the course, Captain Baldwin received instruction in the disposition and preparation of medical records and in registrar training for civilian and military hospitals.

The captain entered the Army in September 1960.

McElhenney

Airman Thomas L. McElhenney, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. McElhenney of 5400 Bacon Point Road, Pahokee, has received his first U. S. Air Force duty assignment after completing basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

He has been assigned to K. L. Sawyer AFB, Mich., for training and duty as an air policeman. He becomes a member of the Strategic Air Command which maintains America's constantly alert force of intercontinental missiles and jet bombers.

Airman McElhenney is a 1966 graduate of Pahokee High School.

Miss Siewert Wins Honors

Miss Janet O. Siewert, 22-year-old Florida State University senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Siewert of Clewiston, Fla., has won the title of "little General" in the Arnold Air Society's (AAS) national competition.

Miss Siewert was officially proclaimed "little General" and presented her crown by the AAS national commander during the military ball held in conjunction with the society's 19th national convocation just concluded in Miami.

The AAS, named for the late General of the Air Force H. H. "Hap" Arnold, is the honorary professional organization composed of outstanding Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps cadets.

Miss Siewert was selected over 16 other contestants representing AFROTC geographical areas for her academic achievement, poise, beauty and outstanding support and service to the Angel Flight, the women's auxiliary of AAS.

She was among hundreds of coeds representing 136 colleges and universities throughout the nation who attended the 12th National Angel Flight Convocation held jointly with that of AAS to discuss organizational programs for the coming year and to hear addresses by top level aerospace leaders.

Miss Siewert, who is majoring in marketing, is secretary of the senior class and executive officer of her Angel Flight at FSU. Her numerous extracurricular activities have included serving as president of Zeta Tau Alpha and as a committee chairman for the Southeastern Panhellenic Conference.

She was graduated in 1963 from Clewiston High School as valedictorian of her class.

Who Goes To Court?
Although the Robinson-Patman Act is generally considered a part of the national anti-trust laws, under which an injured party can go to court to seek relief, in 1958 the U. S. Supreme Court ruled to the contrary.

This business firms being subjected by competitors and suppliers to tactics which seek to drive them out of business by selling at unreasonably low prices can do nothing unless the government takes court action on their behalf.

Senator John Sparkman, Alabama, has before the Congress Senate Bill 877 which would give businessmen the right to sue in court to protect their interests.
